AMERICANS TO GIVE THE KNOCKOUT BLOW

Said Major General Eben Swift, Now Commanding Military Mission to Italy.

Headquarters of the Italian Army, July 24.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—"Victory of the allies is a certainty in my opinion, and I am sure the American army will be the one to deal the knockout blow," said to the correspondent of the Associated Press, Major General Eben Swift, last year in charge of Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., and now commanding the American military mission to Italy.

"I tell you we will win as soon as we get enough men over here and these men get hold of the fighting ideas peculiar to this war, as they are rapidly doing now through association with the French, English, and Italian troops."

"I do not believe in bragging. I prefer to admit all the claims the enemy makes for himself. But giving all the credit due the Germans for their gains, I maintain we are going to smash them. I know the American man, what kind of a soldier he makes, and I insist that he is going to turn out a most formidable fighter, standing comparison with any soldier in Europe. I have visited the armies of the allies and have seen the kind of men they have, and I am sure we are going to be proud of our soldiers when they have had the advantage of learning from our allies and at the same time doing some fighting with the enemy himself. The Germans are not fools and I believe they already fear us."

"One of the big factors in making our army great is that of discipline. The men commanding our army are said to be merciless in matters affecting discipline, in questions of putting the right officers, in the right place, of eliminating favoritism and unfit men, and this is as it should be. By merciless discipline, however, I do not mean ill treatment of soldiers or any body."

"This army is ours that we are building up will lead to the final defeat of the Germans for somewhat the same reasons, perhaps, that Napoleon was defeated in Europe after fifteen years of victory or that of the Confederate army was defeated in our Civil war. Time is working in favor of the allies. The Germans have not succeeded in obtaining any overwhelming decision in this war, and the day will come when the allies, backed by the great American man power, will themselves demand and obtain the decision that we call victory. I do not believe in paying compliments to ourselves or our allies, unless deserved, but this is the situation as I see it in its purely military aspect."

GERMANS LOSE NEARLY MILLION IN 4 MONTHS

Casualties Since March 21 Approaching That Figure, Says Clemenceau's Newspaper.

Paris, July 24 (Havas Agency).—According to a review of the military situation in L'Homme Libre, the newspaper owned by Premier Clemenceau, the German losses since March 21 are approaching 1,000,000 men.

HEAVY GERMAN CASUALTIES

Army Opposing Gen. Gouraud Said to Have Lost 50,000.

London, July 23 (via Ottawa).—The battle on the Aisne-Marne front, although an obstinate struggle, is deepening and extending, with the news continuing most favorable for the allies, according to the London observers. The Germans have not yet recovered from their surprise and have given no signs of attempting to create a diversion elsewhere.

The enemy's main energies seem to be concentrated on defensive fighting, and a series of desperate rear guard actions in the effort to extricate the bulk of their forces from the clutch of the allies, who have been advancing simultaneously from three points of the compass. The position of the enemy is held to be critical, in view of the relentless pressure maintained by General Foch, whose tactics, it is considered possible, may turn the enemy retreat into an enemy rout.

The advance effected by the British in collaboration with the French force on the front southwest of Rheims was most important, as it necessitated the calling in of reserves by the Germans.

The inactivity in the Champagne sector yesterday is semi-officially ascribed by Paris to the enormous German losses, the extent of which cannot be calculated. On the front, which surrounded the army alone 50,000 Germans are declared to have been put out of action.

NAVY HAS 503,792 OFFICERS AND MEN

These in Regular and Reserve Forces, in Marine Corps and in Coast Guard Service.

Washington, July 24.—The navy personnel now numbers 503,792 officers and men, Secretary Daniels announced yesterday. There are 219,158 officers and men in the regular navy, 58,463 officers and men in the marine corps, 219,566 officers and men in the naval reserve force and 6,805 officers and men in the coast guard.

BEING MOVED FOR REPAIRS.

Belgian Relief Ship Sighted Was Damaged Some Time Ago.

New York, July 24.—Officials of the commission for relief in Belgium said yesterday that the Belgian relief ship sighted off the New England coast was undoubtedly a vessel that had been damaged some time ago by an explosion while in an Atlantic port and that she was being towed from that port to another Atlantic port for repairs.

NEARLY MILLION CASUALTIES.

Have Been Suffered By Germans Since March 21.

Paris, July 23.—(Havas).—The German losses since March 21, are approaching one million men, according to a review of the military situation in L'Homme Libre, the newspaper owned by Premier Clemenceau.

EXECUTED MORE THAN 200 PEOPLE

For Participation in Assassination of Ambassador Von Mirbach

100 PERSONS ARE STILL UNDER ARREST

The Bolsheviks of Russia Are Conducting the Prosecutions

Amsterdam, July 24.—Up to July 19 more than 300 social-revolutionists of the left had been shot by the Bolsheviks for participation in the assassination of Ambassador Von Mirbach and in the counter-revolution, the German charge at Moscow has been informed by Foreign Minister Tchitcherine, says a despatch from Berlin.

Among those shot, it is added, was Alexanderovich, vice-president of the committee which directed the plot against the German ambassador. An additional 100 persons are under arrest.

RECIPROCAL DRAFT WITH THE BRITISH

Instructions Issued to the Local Boards Are Submitted By Adjutant General Johnson of Vermont.

Adj. Gen. H. T. Johnson has been receiving a large number of inquiries as to the meaning of the provisions of the Anglo-American conventions relative to compulsory military service, particularly as to between this country and Canada, so that he has sent the following to the local boards, explaining the provisions:

The Senate of the United States recently ratified conventions with Great Britain relating to compulsory military service of citizens of Great Britain and Canada in the United States and of citizens of the United States in Great Britain and Canada. These conventions will take effect from the date of the exchange of ratifications, which will probably be sometime during the present month or early in August. Beginning immediately, however, citizens of Great Britain in the United States may enlist voluntarily in the British forces and may continue to do so until the expiration of the respective periods specified below.

The treaties provide that male citizens of Great Britain and Canada in the United States, between the ages of 20 to 44, inclusive, shall become subject to the selective service of the United States after the expiration of specified periods, unless they voluntarily enlist in the British forces or return to Great Britain for the purpose of military service during these periods. With respect to British subjects who registered on June 5, 1917, or on June 5, 1918, the period will be limited to 60 days after the exchange of ratifications; with respect to British subjects 20 years of age and those between 30 and 44 years of age, inclusive, who will be required to register later, it will be limited to 30 days from the date on which they are required to register. The citizens of Great Britain who become subject to the selective service law because of this treaty will be entitled to deferred classification and exemption just as are American citizens. The conventions do not apply to citizens of Great Britain in the United States who, before proceeding to the United States, were ordinarily resident in a place in the possessions of Great Britain where the law does not impose compulsory military service.

The converse of the above is true with respect to citizens of the United States in Great Britain. American citizens in Great Britain between the ages of 18 and 49, inclusive, will be required to register, but all of them will be exempted except those between the ages of 21 to 30, inclusive.

It should be especially borne in mind that this is not the draft by Great Britain of British subjects and Canadians in the United States. These conventions merely provide that British subjects and Canadians in the United States shall be entitled to exemption and discharge therefrom under the laws of the United States, unless within the prescribed time they voluntarily enlist in the British forces or return to Great Britain or Canada for military service. It is for each man to decide whether he will serve in the British forces or remain in the United States either to serve in the American army or, in proper cases, to be exempted under the selective service law.

CALIFORNIA HONOR AWARDED.

Miss Julie H. Heyneman Given Medal from "California House."

London, July 24.—Miss Julie Heyneman, chairman of the "California House" for disabled Belgian soldiers, has received the Medaille de la Reine Elizabeth from the king of the Belgians. The presentation was made to-day by Baron Moncheur, the Belgian minister. "California House" was started early in the war by a group of Californians living in London. It has been supported by contributions from the founders and from the people of California.

MANAGER OF SHORT LINES.

E. G. Niles of New Hampshire Appointed to R. R. Administration.

Washington, D. C., July 24.—E. G. Niles, president of the New Hampshire public service commission and president of the National Association of Railway Commissioners, was yesterday appointed manager of the short line section of the railroad administration to see that short line roads not under government control secure fair divisions of joint rates, car supplies and traffic with those which are.

OHIO COLLEGE GIRL

Overworked, Nervous, Run-Down—Health Restored by Vinol.

Urbana, Ohio.—"I am attending college, and got into a nervous, run-down condition, no appetite, was weak and exhausted. Vinol has given me a good appetite and built up my strength and health, and I can heartily recommend it to anyone for such conditions."—Miss Adelaide Carter.

The reason Vinol was so successful in Miss Carter's case is because it contains the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength.

BARCLAY STATE CHAMPION.

Barre Man Made Highest Score in Trap-shooting Tournament.

The tenth annual tournament of the Vermont State Trapshooting association was held with the Lamouille Valley Gun club at Morrisville July 17 and 18, and was one of the most successful shoots ever held in the state. Forty-eight faced the traps the first day in a drizzling rain and 57 the second day.

The state championship at 16 yards was closely contested, it being in doubt until the last target was broken. Twigg finished with 94, and in order for Barclay to win the event he was forced to make 20 straight on his last string in order to win his third consecutive championship of the state. He did this in fine style, and the smashing of his last target was met with applause from the large gallery.

The preliminary was won by Moulton, with Barclay second and Hulbert third.

The Interstate Trapshooting association's Vermont handicap was won by Barclay with a total of 92 at 21 yards, with Hulbert second, 90 at 19 yards, and Nudd 19 yards and Twigg 21 yards tied for third and fourth places. The tie was shot off on two events of 20 each, both going straight in the first and Nudd winning the second, 20 to 17.

The state championship was won by Barclay with 92, with Twigg runner-up at 94 and Purdy third with 90.

The presence of the members of the Vermont volunteer militia, in uniform, shooting through the program, was a novel and interesting feature. When the scores are examined, it must be remembered that but few of these men had shot more than 30 targets before this tournament, and with this in mind their work was remarkable.

The annual business meeting of the state association was held at the parlors of the Randall Wednesday evening, and the following officers were elected: President, D. M. Barclay of Barre; vice-president, M. E. Mauries of Morrisville; secretary-treasurer, H. B. Moulton of Montpelier; executive committee, Dr. G. E. London of Burlington, C. P. Hulbert of Randolph, E. R. Purdy of Springfield. It was voted to hold the next state tournament at Springfield, in the summer of 1919.

Clothes for Elderly Men

There are really very few "old men" these days; some men have simply lived longer than others.

These older men are good clothes buyers; they've learned by experience that good quality is the only thing that pays. They want all-wool fabrics, the best of tailoring; and they're young enough in spirit to want good style.

Hart Schaffner & Marx make clothes that suit men of that type; and we sell them.

We invite all men, young men and older, to see these unusual suits and overcoats.
